4. The highest bidder should, immediately after the close of the sale, pay a deposit of 25 per cent of the purchase money inclusive of the deposit referred to in para 2 and the remainder before sunset on the 15th day from the date of sale as provided for by the rules in force; in default, the land will be resold at the risk of the defaulter, who will have to make good the deficiency, if any, at the second sale, but will have no claim to the excess, if any.

5. The land sold under these rules shall be held free of assessment for the first three years and on half assessment for the next two years, full assessment being payable from and after the sixth year. But before the concession is granted, the purchaser must bind himself in writing to pay the full assessment from the first year in the event of his resigning the land after cutting down the timber on it or otherwise clearing any portion of it, but without having made any bonâ-fide attempt to bring under cultivation the areable area included in it.
